RE: Police applicant Jeffrey Lancaster

December 5, 2002

Sir,

Upon your request, I spoke to Officer Paul Weldon who was listed as a reference for Jeffrey Lancaster. Officer Weldon said he went to high school with applicant and knew that applicant was involved in wrestling. They would speak during school hours but did not socialize outside of the school. He knew that applicant had gotten into trouble while driving his motorcycle. After high school, he believes applicant went to college part-time. He did not keep in contact with applicant. It was not until the past 3 years, while playing Rough-Touch football on Sundays, that Officer Weldon came in contact with applicant again. They see each other while playing football but do not socialize any other time.

Officer Weldon said applicant chose the wrong people to hang out with and, as a result, found himself in trouble. He would not label applicant as an instigator. I asked Officer Weldon if he knew Tim Cochran, the individual that allegedly started physical altercations that resulted in applicant being arrested. Officer Weldon knew who Tim Cochran was and said Tim Cochran is an instigator of trouble and is very vocal of his opinions towards others. When I relayed the circumstances of applicant's arrests to Officer Weldon, he said he could definitely believe that Tim Cochran initiated physical confrontations.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia DiMarco
